CHINESE PEOPLE WARNED OF HARDSHIPS AHEAD

BROADCAST TO NATION BY THE GENERALISSIMO

China Will Emerge Victorious Despite Japan's Sinister Designs

HANKOW, July 7.
WARNING THEM OF GREATER HARDSHIPS AND SUFFERINGS AHEAD, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in a broadcast speech this evening exhorted the 450,000,000 Chinese to redouble their efforts and be prepared to make further sacrifices in the struggle for national emancipation.

Whilst taking due cognizance of the heroic spirit of the Chinese troops and civilians in prosecuting the war of resistance during the past year, the Generalissimo declared that they have so far fulfilled a part of their duties to the country but have not yet exerted their utmost efforts to meet the increasingly menacing situation.

Have those who have money contributed to the country generously? Have those who have strength offered their strength unreservedly? Generalissimo Chiang asked.

After one year of the Sino-Japanese hostilities, Generalissimo Chiang perceived a major difference between China and Japan in the Sino-Japanese hostilities in the past year. Whilst Japan is uncertain of her purpose, China has always been and is pursuing a fixed policy of determined resistance.

Japan, Generalissimo Chiang pointed out, has repeatedly increased her war budget and has again and again sent reinforcements to China to continue the war. At the beginning of the hostilities, Japan declared that she would fight a speedy war. Later she declared that she would engage in a protracted war, and lately she declared that she would end the war by a "show-down." This constant change of strategy as well as her political crises and financial instability are strong indications of her desperation and uncertainty.

On the contrary, Generalissimo Chiang asserted, China expected to meet extreme hardships and dangers from the very beginning and was fully determined and prepared to make the greatest sacrifices to win the final victory in the supreme struggle.

CLEAR-CUT POLICY

Reiterating that China is fighting for her national existence and independence and world justice and peace, Generalissimo Chiang declared that no change has been made in this simple and clear-cut policy. So long as the menace of aggression has not been removed and China's territorial and sovereign integrity has not been ensured, China will not cease her military operations against the aggressor.

She will continue to fight even when only one inch of her territory and one man are left. With such firm determination and undaunted spirit China has been able to meet whatever atrocities Japan committed. Her morale has never been affected by temporary reverses and loss of territory.

BETTER UNITED

In fact, as the war dragged on, the Chinese people have become more steadfast in purpose, more courageous and better united. In general, they are not arrogant when they win victories and are not discouraged when they suffer reverses. They have also confidence that they will win the final victory in this war. Despite all their sufferings and hardships, they have been stoically continuing their efforts to defend their national existence.

However, Generalissimo Chiang continued, in view of the increasing hardships ahead, they should redouble their efforts in the struggle for the final victory. The troops at the front should not only be ready to sacrifice their lives but sacrifice them in such a way as to exact the highest price from the enemy. Meanwhile, the civilians at the rear should work harder than ever before and should lead a thrifty and simple life.

EQUAL CHANCE

Continuing, Generalissimo Chiang declared that in this glorious war for national existence, all Chinese citizens, irrespective of profession and social status have equal chance to contribute their efforts. They are expected to fulfill their duties to the country as best as they can.

GOVERNOR GIVEN WIDE POWERS

Proclamation of Letters Patent giving the Governor of Hong Kong wide powers to dismiss or suspend persons holding public office was read at yesterday's meeting of the Legislative Council, presided over by His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote.

The main provision of the Letters Patent is as follows:—

"The Governor may, subject to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him by Us through one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, dismiss or suspend from the exercise of his office any person holding any public office within the Colony, or, subject as aforesaid, may take such other disciplinary action as may seem to him desirable."

The Letters become immediately operative.

Full report of the Council meeting appears on Page 7.

HUKOU STILL IN HANDS OF CHINESE FORCES

Hankow, July 7.
Hukou is still in the hands of Chinese forces, according to Chinese reports, which state that Japanese troops are surrounding the town from all sides.

Street fighting is raging in the eastern quarter of the town, according to a report from the Kuikiang correspondent of the Sao Tang Pao. Four regimental commanders of the Chinese garrison are said to have been wounded in the action and General Liu Hsin, Chinese divisional commander, is said to be directing the operations at Hukou in person.

Chinese reinforcements are reported to be pouring into the Hukou area in an attempt to save the situation while a strong defence line is said to have already been established to the west of Hukou.

The Kuikiang correspondent telegraphs that the "Chinese forces have been ordered to counter attack the Japanese at Hukou." (Reuter).

SINGAPORE STRIKE

Singapore, July 7.
Transport workers have gone on strike for higher wages, and better working conditions. The Government has organised emergency measures to facilitate transportation. (Reuter Bulletin).

EUROPEANS DEAD IN KOBE FLOODS

Tokyo, July 7.
Twenty houses belonging to Germans were destroyed and thirty damaged by floods at Kobe on Tuesday according to a report from the German Consul-General there. The number of dead in Kobe is estimated at 300 to 400, including those missing. Four Europeans were killed and three seriously injured. (Trans-ocean).

HEAVY LOSSES SUFFERED BY JAPANESE FORCES

Unsuccessful Attempts To Aid Beleaguered Comrades Near Linfen

TRAINLOAD WIPED OUT

Shan, July 7.
Heavy losses were suffered by the Japanese forces making repeated unsuccessful attempts to go to the aid of their beleaguered comrades at Linfen in central Shan.

On the afternoon of July 4, according to a belated report reaching here, a trainload of Japanese troops proceeding from Chiehhsu southward along the Fen River were attacked and wiped out by a brigade of Chinese forces at Sanlingyu.

Several other Japanese contingents, despatched to reinforce the Japanese garrison at Linfen, were similarly attacked and annihilated during the last few days, the report said. (Central News).

JAPANESE PLANS REVEALED

Kuikiang, July 7.
Japanese military plans along the Yangtze if they succeeded in capturing Hukow were revealed in an important document found on the body of an officer killed in action somewhere between Fengtsh and Hukow.

According to these plans, the Japanese army, when it succeeded in gaining control of Hukow, would divide its forces into two columns for a simultaneous drive on Nanchang and Kuikiang.

Responsible quarters pointed out that the Japanese scheme would prove most hard to be carried out, as Chinese defence for both the cities is adequately strong to repulse any Japanese attacks. (Central News).

MADAME CHIANG CONTRIBUTES $18,000 WORTH OF GOLD

Hankow, July 7.
Hankow was bedecked this morning on the occasion of the first anniversary of the Lukouchiao incident.

Despite intermittent rain, thousands crowded the "receiving stations" where the public are encouraged to offer gold to the State and help swell the Chinese war chest.

Madame Chiang Kai-shek who personally sponsored the "Give Your Gold to the State" campaign donated a quantity of gold worth $18,000.

Hundreds of children were among those to offer their savings at the receiving stations, donating ten or twenty cents out of their slender purses.

Hankow women's organisations were mobilised to direct the campaign, being apportioned to take charge of the various "receiving stations." Brass bands played at all the stations and aeroplanes roared overhead, scattering pamphlets containing patriotic messages.

Girls undergoing military training dashed around Hankow in trucks singing patriotic songs and giving speeches. (Reuter).

FIGHTING IN INDIA

London, July 7.
Reports from India state that further fighting occurred in Waziristan when British troops intercepted a gang of tribesmen who had been attacking a mail truck. Slight casualties were suffered on both sides. (Reuter Bulletin).

The First Anniversary Of The War

London, July 7.
THE ANNIVERSARY of the Sino-Japanese war was marked by special articles in several papers, all dwelling on the unprecedented Chinese national will to resist. The most remarkable feature of the war is that a decisive victory still eludes the Japanese armies.

Mr. Quo Tai-chi, conducted the memorial service in the Embassy at noon when a three-minute silence in honour of the Chinese dead was observed. All the Chinese community attended.

The Lord Mayor Fund now approaches £130,000 including over £1,000 from British doctors alone. The organizers draw attention to the readiness with which contributions are rolling in weekly, thus giving evidence of the widening appreciation of China's need. Leading provincial cities, for example Manchester and Birmingham, are actively co-operating. It is announced that Australia is sending a unit to China in October, including a portable hospital with wards, an operating theatre, X-ray equipment, motor ambulances and a staff of trained nurses.

The Indian doctor, Madan Atal will shortly take the first Indian medical unit to China consisting of several motor ambulances and dressing stations. Over a hundred young Indian doctors have already volunteered to accompany the unit to China. (Reuter).

Canton Defies Air Raid

Canton, July 7.
Defying the threat of a Japanese air raid, thousands of Cantonese people this morning solemnly observed the "Double Seven" by attending a mass meeting and later a memorial gathering at which the foundation stone of a monument for the fallen heroes in the present war was laid.

The mass meeting was presided by General Yu Han-mou, Commander-in-Chief of the Fourth Route Army, who delivered the principal speech. General Yu's stirring address was followed by those of General Wu Te-chen, and Mr. Tsou Lu, President of the National Chungshan University.

A number of resolutions were adopted at the meeting, including the despatching of telegrams to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and the armed forces of the nation, pledging the support of the people and urging them to fight on.

Another telegram, addressed to the People's Political Council now in session in Hankow, was also sent.

After the meeting, the gathering broke up in file to start a long parade through the principal streets of the city.

Three minutes' silence was observed at twelve o'clock noon. The heartening news that a Japanese plane had been shot down was received when the entire city was remembering the nation's fallen men in silence. (Central News).

"Manchukuo" Troops Surrender

Chengchow, July 7.
Driven to despair by the excessive oppression of the Japanese many Manchukuo troops operating in north Honan have come over to the Chinese side with their arms, a report from the front states.

Fighting still rages at a number of points north of the Yellow River, where the Chinese are holding their ground.

At Sinyang, the Japanese garrison strength has been reduced to only about 500 men, belonging to the 10th Division of the Shimo-hara Division, which has been much emaciated during recent heavy fighting at Tsingyuan and other points.

Large numbers of wounded Japanese soldiers have arrived at Poot and Sinyang along the Tsou-kow-Tsinghwa railway, from points further to the west. (Central News).

INCREASED REVENUE IN COLONY LAST YEAR

Expansion Of Existing Sources—No New Taxes

The following extracts from the Financial Secretary's report for the year 1937, tabled in Legislative Council yesterday afternoon, show that the satisfactory results achieved last year were reached almost entirely by an expansion in existing sources of revenue, no new or increased taxes being imposed during the year:—

From the point of view of Government finance the main feature of the year 1937 was the passing of the acute financial stringency of the previous two years. The Estimates provided for a deficit of $3,498,910, revenue being put at $28,790,250 and expenditure at $32,289,160. In the actual result revenue exceeded the estimate by $4,436,118 and with a small saving of $147,938 over estimated expenditure a surplus of $1,088,148 was realised. The surplus of assets on December, 1937, was $14,002,278, a much more satisfactory figure than was anticipated when the Estimates for 1937 were prepared in the Autumn of 1936. The deficits then anticipated for 1936 and 1937 would have reduced the surplus of assets to about $8,000,000.

SINO-JAPANESE WAR
During the latter part of the year the general improvement in economic conditions in the Far East was brought sharply to an end by the outbreak of hostilities between China and Japan but the immediate financial effect upon Hong Kong was beneficial. Large numbers of refugees from Shanghai and South China came into the Colony while the practical cessation of trade with the interior of China through Shanghai resulted in an increased volume of trade passing through Canton and other Southern Coast ports, a large part of which was conducted via Hong Kong.

As a result both of the greater activity and of the increase in population, which has been estimated at as much as 25 per cent., practically all the sources of revenue showed substantial increases.

The receipts from rates were higher owing to the smaller number of vacant tenements, these having sunk from nearly 3,000 in January to under 1,000 in December.

Liquor and tobacco duties also showed substantial increases while many minor items such as entertainment tax and the royalties payable on gross receipts by omnibus and ferry companies reflected the increase in population.

EXPENDITURE
As regards expenditure, details of which are also given in the Accountant-General's report, the total was very close to the original estimate. Larger savings would have been realised but for the unexpected expense occasioned by the disastrous typhoon of September 2nd and additional expenses caused by the Cholera epidemic which visited the Colony in the late summer and by various supplementary expenditure in connection with refugees and other items arising out of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

As already noted the surplus of assets over liabilities at the end of the year was $14,002,278. The greater part of this, i.e. $10,320,268, was advanced to loan funds pending reimbursement from the issue of the remainder of the 3½ per cent. Dollar Loan; but total cash resources ignoring deposits earmarked for special funds amounted to $5,034,113.

LOANS
As regards loans the position remains that of the $25,000,000 authorised by the Dollar Loan Ordinance, 1934. $14,000,000 has been issued. The balance of $11,000,000 is available for issue when the funds are required, expenditure being advanced from general surplus balances in the meanwhile as already noted. This system is being continued for the present as the liquid resources available appear sufficient to meet the immediate needs but the necessity of issuing the remainder of the loan as soon as circumstances require is kept in mind.

CURRENCY
The currency situation remained stable during the year. The Exchange rate continued to be controlled by the operations of the Exchange Fund set up under the Currency Ordinance, 1935, and quotations in the rate during the year were small.

MANAGED CURRENCY
The year under review is interesting as being the first year during which our managed currency has functioned free of speculative influences. The result has amply justified the abandonment of silver as an absolute standard.

The steadiness of exchange has promoted confidence in foreign trade dealings and enabled merchants to take a longer view of their commitments than was possible when trading prospects were subject to the vagaries of the Silver Market. Equally important has been the stability of the Chinese National Dollar.

More Colony Road Deaths

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS ON INCREASE

An increase in the number of traffic accidents during the first half of the year over the corresponding period of 1937, as well as in the fatality rate, is shown in the latest returns issued by the Hong Kong Police Traffic Department.

From January 1 to June 30 this year, there were 1,639 traffic accidents, as a result of which 59 people were killed and 687 injured. In the first half of 1937 there were 1,130 accidents, 34 persons killed and 480 injured.

Last week there were 82 traffic accidents in the Colony. A Chinese youth 27 years old died as the result of injuries received whilst alighting from a moving tramcar. The injured numbered 29.

ALLEGED THREAT TO WAITRESS

Three Men Charged

Three men, Li Chun, Fung Lam and Ng Kwong, appeared before Mr. Lockhart-Smith at the Central Court yesterday on charges of threatening a waitress, with intent to injure her, to induce her to become a member of a society and demanding money with menaces with intent to steal. The complainant is So Pat, 21.

Mr. E. S. C. Brooks appeared on behalf of the first defendant and Mr. J. M. d'Almada Remedios for the second and third defendants and pleaded not guilty to the charges. Det.-Inspector Ritchie was for the prosecution.

It was alleged that about 2 a.m. on June 18 a stranger approached the complainant, and asked her whether she would settle the matter and warned her to be careful. Shortly after the alleged threat, first defendant went to complainant's house and inquired about the trouble.

The following day, two men stopped complainant in the street and allegedly assaulted her. Soon after the first defendant appeared in the street and promised to investigate the source of the trouble. Several hours later first defendant saw complainant and claimed to have located the persons who assaulted her and said that expenses were needed to settle the matter. They advised complainant to join a society for protection.

A meeting was arranged and on June 21, the three defendants met complainant in the Asia Cafe where complainant handed over $35 to first defendant as entrance fee to join the society. While leaving the cafe, the men were

GAMBLING RAID IN VALLEY

Police Scale Wall To Made Arrests

Twenty-six persons, including two Europeans and a traveller from Manila, were arrested when a police party raided the ground floor of No. 29, Shan Kwong Road Happy Valley, where gambling was alleged to have been going on. To effect the raid the police had to slide down a wall 50 feet high.

The persons arrested yesterday appeared before Mr. Butters at the Central Court on bail of $50 each on a charge of gambling. The keeper appeared on a bail of $1,000. The case was adjourned till July 15.

TRAM DRIVER FINED

Appearing before Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday on a summons for driving a tram car in a manner dangerous to the public, Ho Yu, was fined $10. Sgt. Appleton said about 7.25 p.m. on June 14, he was at Pedder Street waiting for the traffic light to show green. While waiting he saw the tram car, which had remained stationary at the stop outside the Gloucester Building, proceed on its way towards West Point, the red light was on. He had to stop to allow the tram to pass.

Defendant was represented by Mr. M. W. Lo. arrested by detectives who had been posted outside the restaurant. The hearing was adjourned till June 18.

CONFIDE IN FAITH PRIOR

FIFTY-SIX, outlines a life of work, sacrifice, drudgery and heartache, through long years of trying to control a husband and bringing up a family now gone their own ways.

Your legacy is a godsend. Your family all love and respect you, and you have your home and garden. Your husband has no right to wish to return after his cruelly, desertion, neglect and disloyalty, and the reason seems, as you say, to be in the legacy.

He has found his frivolous friends useless now he is ageing and cannot earn very much. Your love has turned to disgust and contempt, which is not surprising. I agree with your wish to obtain a legal stamp on the separation he made and upheld through those long years of incessant struggle.

PRUDENCE—A capable, working, young lady utterly sick and tired of working, waiting and saving until her fiancé has enough money to buy a house and land and to get furniture. She has several hundred dollars, and he has about a thousand, but says he will not marry until everything is paid for. After seven years she finds her love waning, and is interested in another man who has prudence within logic and reason. What is she to do?

There is no need these days to own a house completely, nearly every property is mortgaged. He is obviously putting house and possessions before your peace and comfort. If you no longer love him, it is his fault for trying you too far.

Make certain about the one you really want, and if you have to return the ring, do so honestly with full explanation.

TWENTY YEARS—writes that she is in love with a boy 19 years of age, whose wavering behaviour turns from her to another girl. She wants to know how to act towards him in fear of losing him.

First do not show you want him, for his sort nearly always takes the one for granted who is most eager. In fact, his naive advice to let faith work things out proves his lack of character in this instance, for it is he, and his decision, which must work things out.

You are showing evidence of a certain possessiveness which is common with the very young in love, and this is a mistake. Being in love at your age and his is invariably an excessive and often a fatuous proceeding, frequently ending in disillusionment with much waste of worry, heartache and tears.

If he wants this other girl you would be wise to let him have her.

A BROKEN HUSBAND details another marriage tragedy, with himself broken-hearted, the home smashed, his wife gone to her parents and trying to get the children to follow her, and the man in the case an apparent scoundrel.

It is obvious that you cannot repair such a tragic break-up of what was, a happy home. You gave her every chance, trusted her, offered to forgive, if she would renounce this man whose actions explain his character: so it is not your fault, but your misfortune, that no more can be done. The whole thing is sad and bitter for you, but try to realise that an effort to keep her at home in this way she once would half kill you with strain and the reminders of this shock and upset.

Some women, unhappily, are victims of their own vanity and things are now best left static to work out later.

DEAR FAITH PRIOR—You and all the people living in the Colony, well know of the stigma which is cast upon a girl or boy born of parents of different races.

We have not been living here for a long time, and I am finding it increasingly difficult to make friends.

I have a good education, enjoy the social events, and like to associate with other people.

But I am very lonely, I wonder if living in another city in a different part of the world would be easier and happier for me?—Lonely.

Dear Lonely—You have a problem, it is true. There are many people around you who share the same one. Of course, all of us have our problems to contend with and work out.

Think seriously and plan your life. Study your situation and examine it closely. When you decide what code you wish to live by, then set yourself a point, work up to it and live by the code you choose. Let no person or circumstance alter your decision. Make yourself strong in character, be sure to be continually educating yourself. Be tolerant, strive at independence, cultivate good manners, and by all means have a sense of humour.

As you go along building your life, you will find that friends will be attracted to you.

Why go to another city? You cannot run away from yourself. If the opportunity for a comfortable living is here, there is no reason for you to leave. There are other advantages in various cities, but these will not help you unless you, yourself, know how to use and secure the most value from them. Start to work on your own life first of all before you do anything else.

DEAR FAITH PRIOR: I am a working girl, and have been very much in love for two years.

My father is very strict and does not care to meet any of my friends; consequently, I have not invited the man I am in love with to meet my father.

For a time we have been very happy for he does not care about the way he is treated. Now and then he has asked me to introduce him to father, for we cannot go on forever without their meeting each other.

About three months ago he stopped coming to see me and we do not go out together now. I could do nothing about it because of my unfortunate position.

A fortnight ago I met him in the street, and we went to call on a girl friend of mine. We arranged a swimming party with her family, and we all had a very good time. Since then he has been very familiar with them and is quite at home in their house.

Now when we are alone he has nothing to say, and I dare not invite him to the house, he might refuse.

I do hope you can help me in this. I shall be ever so grateful. I have no one whom I can ask for advice so I write to you. Life is not worth living if you are in such a position as I am.

DEAR DISAPPOINTED IN LOVE: Please read the Daily Press next Friday and I shall give you a few words, concerning the position you are in, as stated in your letter.

(Each week in this column, Faith Prior answers questions of a personal nature submitted by readers of the Daily Press.)

Fashion PRE-VIEW

THIS IS A COTTON SUMMER—

Round The Shops

Time just seems to be marching on. Of course, with last week's holidays, no one had time for shopping. But we have found several new items for you.

BEAUTY GADGETS
In one of our larger shops a new beauty time-saver was found. "Bonnie-B" Hair Removing Booklet, priced 85 cents. This small booklet, which will last you about a month in use once a week, literally wipes the superfluous hair away.

After you once try the "Bonnie-B" you will give back to the males or your family their razors and blades.

Another new and wonder-working beauty aid is the "Anti-Wrinkle Stick." It acts while you sleep. Erases wrinkles and sun lines—and so easy to use. It is in stick form, and is encased in an attractive container.

To work it, gently smooth the stick beneath the eyes and between the eyebrows and on the eyelids. No rubbing. Let the stick rest lightly until the heat of the skin makes it soft.

This product is invaluable for sunbathing, after motoring, aviation, and all other outdoor activities. It will be worth the $2.95.

INDIVIDUAL APPAREL
Over in Kowloon a small dress shop has the sophisticated sheers you want during these hot days.

The size range is complete. Organza, marganza volles, refined burlaps, and the new chiffon and crepe combination are well represented in styles which are quite plain but distinctive in material and colour combination.

The evening and party dress selection in this same shop is outstanding. You can see that buyer with an eye for style and individuality has been busy. An organdie with red polka dots and red hickrack braid trim on the bolero jacket is very fetching. Another frock that will take your eye is in yellow, applique figure on white marganza background, with a white taffeta underslip which rustles all over.

You want the unusual dress—take a little time off and see these different selections of American clothes.

NEW LIFE
Oh! you are so "all in" and a bon voyage dinner to be attended in a few hours—but stop and take notice! One of Hong Kong's beauty shop will send an operator to you, and she will bring you new life in the form of facial, massage, coiffure and manicure.

The cost will be double that of your call at said shop, but you will be a new person in an hour or two. So when you want to preserve that last ounce of energy before that party, why not try this service?

DARKER STRAWS
A specialty bonnet shop in Hong Kong reports that our Mrs. and Miss public are demanding darker shades in their mid-season straws. Dark blues, browns, deeper pastel shades, maroons, and blacks with the fancy and plain veils, flowers and ribbon trims are in the new shipment this shop has just received.

The styles are large and small—cartwheels to no brims—high to no crowns—sophistication to childlikeness.

Though sale days are over for this shop, there are still a few and if you can use one of them, it would be a bargain for you.

MATERNITY FROCKS

Most of us sooner or later become maternity-dress-minded. It is a difficult task to find something attractive along this line. However, one of the Colony's small specialty dress shops can help you out here. Black floral prints on white backgrounds, small polka dots and solid sheer crepes are designed into gowns which give you plenty of room, comfort, and style during those hectic days when you cannot find anything suitable to wear.

So stop worrying and let this shop handle your problems when the occasion arises.

For information regarding the above mentioned items, phone Barbara Lee, 30251, or mail a stamped self-addressed envelope to the Daily Press.

KING COTTON is certainly having his say in summer clothes this year.

Most of this season's sport clothes are water minded. Made to wear in the water, riding the waves in a yacht or on a surf board, or for playing and lying on the long sandy stretch of a beach.

Chambrays, linens, cotton jersey, refined burlap, calico and singham are used to make everything that is worn near the water, and in the water.

Weavers who make the smart cottons that Paris dressmakers use are scattered all over France, Great Britain and the U.S.A., but they have been animated by a single thought in making these materials. It is to make them dramatic and gay.

Bold stripes, candy stripes, pin stripes, all in strong, crude colours that savages dote on, are printed on our sports wear. They are the most important patterns, but there are lots of big stenciled flowers and plenty of dots and checks too.

DISTINGUISHED COSTUMES
AS USUAL, plain navy, dead white and such sober colours make some of the most distinguished costumes, but they pass unnoticed in the hordes of patterned outfits.

There is no outstanding garment in cottons this summer. Shorts are still worn as play suits, with halter, bandeau or smock tops. Long pajamas, tailored like a man's, are just as good and maybe better. They pair off with shirtmaker blouses, halters and bandeaus.

Beach aprons, worn over shorts or swim suits are very new and in enchanting cottons. Rompers and bloomers are on tap for the gal whose legs are shapely enough to get away with them. Long, very full cotton skirts, or peasant dresses, open most of the way

DIRNDLS

ANOTHER BIG FASHION ITEM
"Dirndls." Fashion centres are knee deep in them—and that's the truth. Because dirndls, to be right, are just about knee high—they are very fetching made up in figured cotton. But beware, only certain types of slimness can wear them. If they do not suit the figure, remember that culottes are coming back with a bang, and will be much more flattering to the hippy.

A terry cloth porter's blouse is destined to be very popular over swim suits or slacks. It would be very smart in white monogrammed in red.

The two piece cotton peasant frock in brightest flowers BUT made with a separate full skirt and one of the new separate blouse tops that close with a drawstring and have the shortest of sleeves is new for any morning activity.

AFTERNOON WEAR
FOR THE AFTERNOON cotton lace is very smart. The soft beige tones, dusty blues and pinks are the most popular. These frocks when made up are finished with jewel buttons which make them quite dressy, depending on the button size.

A spick and span outfit would be pale blue and white linen. The skirt pale blue, the top buttoning on white applique in pale blue butterflies.

FOR LEG AND BACK MUSCLES

Ann Rutherford garbed in a two-piece white woolen costume, recommends this beach exercise of rising on the toes, arching the back and allowing the weight of the body to rest on the outstretched hands.

down the front, are made to slip on over swim suits on the beach.

HEADDRESSES
COTTON EVEN TAKES to heads—the enormous hats, big as parasols, that tie on under the chin. There are tent headdresses, with stiffened brims, and no one should be without a dead white cotton hat, usable at all times during these hot days.

Towelins needn't be confined to the bathrooms. Wear it on every possible opportunity in beach, tennis or garden clothes, and if you concentrate on white towelling you will have a grand chance for rakish and colourful monogram embroidery.

BLACK MARGANZA

A BLACK MARGANZA evening gown inset with sheer black lace with a cluster of pale pink hyacinths at the bosom and worn with pale pink evening slippers would be very successful, and all in cotton.

By all means have a full length, full skirted fine pique or linen evening coat. You can wear it with practically all your cotton formals or dinner dresses.

If the pocket book can stand it, make your cottons (and have plenty of them) as simple as possible. BUT have your jewellery as fantastic—the combination, and effect is unbeatable.

Get rid of Disfiguring
Blemishes
this
Easy Way

Nothing can be more distracting to a woman than ugly pimples, burning irritations or patches of blackheads or enlarged pores on the face or neck. Some resort to heavy powdering in an effort to hide them; whilst others cause the skin to become muddy-looking, coarse and blemished by using the wrong treatment.

To make your skin clear and healthy, to cleanse clogged facial pores, remove blackheads and pimples and to make your complexion clearer and smoother, use Cuticura.

Cleanse the skin with Cuticura Soap twice a day. Its luxuriant and mildly antiseptic lather is soothing and softening; washes away pore-deep dirt which causes blackheads, enlarged pores and ugly complexion defects.

To rid the skin of pimples, skin outbreaks, rashes or irritations use Cuticura Ointment direct on the affected part before washing with the soap. Its antiseptic action kills germs, soothes and heals and quickly clears the skin.

ROYAL NAVY

RELIEFS FOR CRUISERS
The cruisers Apollo and Amphion, which are to be transferred to the Royal Australian Navy, will be relieved by two older cruisers in their present employment. The Apollo, to be transferred about September or October next, will be relieved on the America and West Indies Station by the Berwick, on completion of large repairs about December.

The Amphion, to be transferred about July, 1939, will be relieved on the Africa Station by the Devonshire about the latter date. The cruisers for Australia are to be renamed Perth and Hobart.

The Berwick, completed in 1928, served on the China Station till she was paid off a year ago for large repairs at Chatham Dockyard. She belongs to the first group of 8-in. gun cruisers designed after the Washington Treaty of 1922. The Devonshire, completed in 1923, has since been employed in the Mediterranean, except for a period in 1932-33, when she was lent to the China Station. She is one of the second group of 8-in. gun cruisers, of the London type.

NAVAL APPOINTMENTS
The following appointments are made by the Admiralty:—
Lt. (E.) S. W. Underhill, to Curlew (July 4).

ROYAL NAVAL RESERVE
Payr. Cdr.—N. C. Pease, to Iron Duke (July 11).
Lt.—G. G. Roberts, to Boreas (July 11).

R.A. Harrison, entered as Prob. Sub-Lt. (seny. June 23).

SOVIET ADHERES TO TRI-POWER NAVAL PLANS

London, July 7.
The protocol of the London Naval Treaty of 1936 invoking the so-called Escalator Clause and making provision for a upper limit of 45,000 tons for battleships and a gun calibre of 16 inches was signed at the Foreign Office yesterday by the Soviet Charge d'Affaires, M. Kagan and by Sir Alexander Cadogan on behalf of the British Government. — (British Wireless).

MANY DESIRE TO JOIN R.A.F.

London, July 6.
Sir Kingsley Wood, Air Minister, announced in the House of Commons yesterday that during the six months ended July 2, 19,140 men had applied for enlistment in the Royal Air Force. — (British Wireless).

ROYAL AIR FORCE

NEW EQUIPMENT
Further details which are now available concerning the equipment of squadrons in recent months shows that No. 45 (Bomber) Squadron, at Helwan, Egypt, was the first overseas unit to complete its establishment with the Vickers Wellesley long-range bomber.

The Wellesley had already been issued to a number of squadrons at home before it made its appearance in the Middle East Command. With No. 45 Squadron it is likely to get as searching a test under service conditions abroad as anywhere, for this squadron usually heads the list for number of flying hours.

In 1932, to commemorate the fact that it had flown more hours than any other unit in the previous year, it was presented with a silver model of the Napier Lion engine, with which its Fairley ILLF machines were then fitted, as a trophy for competition annually between the squadron's flights.

Other squadrons, which have recently been entirely equipped or re-equipped with new aircraft are No. 53 (B) Squadron, with Armstrong Whitely heavy bombers; and Nos. 110 and 144 (B) Squadrons, with Bristol Blenheim medium bombers. No. 202 (General Reconnaissance) Squadron at Malta has been re-equipped with Saro London flying-boats in place of the Supermarine Scapa-type with which it had worked since 1935.

R.A.F. APPOINTMENTS
The following appointments in the Royal Air Force are notified:—
GENERAL DUTIES BRANCH
Air Commodore—C. H. E. Blount, O.B.E., M.C., to Headquarters No. 4 (Bomber) Group, Linton-on-Ouse, on appointment as Air Officer-Commanding (June 8).
Group Captain—F. Sowrey, D. S. O., M.C., A.F.C., to R.A.F. Station, Tangmere, to command (June 9).

SECRET ARMY FOR SPAIN

A "Backs-To-The Wall" army for the Spanish Government is being recruited secretly on a large scale in Midland cities.

In the last month over 900 men have been interviewed by political officials in Birmingham, Leicester and other centres, and accepted as fighters for Madrid and Barcelona fronts. Many men travelled from Scotland to volunteer.

A vast organisation now operates secretly over a wide area with agents—a number of them Scotsmen—in every industrial centre. So successful are the methods of the organisation that military "boards," sitting in Birmingham and Leicester, can pick and choose the men.

Would-be volunteers are closely questioned. "Men with large families or with dependents in poor circumstances are invariably rejected," one of the organisers told a reporter.

Despite the vigilance of Detective Sergeant G. Smith, in charge of Leicester's C.I.D. political investigation group, a tribunal meets regularly in a house in the Highfields district.

Four hundred delegates at a conference at Glasgow recently convened by Glasgow and Edinburgh Trades Council, decided to send a Scottish trade union ship with food and material to Spain not later than August next.

SAVED FROM GAOL BY WIFE HE STRUCK

A wife whose husband had dragged her round the room by the hair and knocked her down, so that she injured herself on a fender, was asked by Hull stipendiary magistrate (Mr. J. R. Macdonald):—

"Shall I send him to prison? I can keep him out of your way for as long as six months."

The wife: Please don't, sir. I think we can be happy.

Mr. Macdonald: But he has knocked you about before. He might do it again and perhaps it won't end up so happily as today.

The wife: We'll have another try. I really think we can be happy.

Mr. Macdonald: Very well, I won't send him to prison. If I did it would only break your home life. I'll bind him over for six months, but he'll have to pay £2 costs.

SINGAPORE APPEAL

Cabin Built For Film "Boo-oo"

An appeal arising out of the judgment of Mr. Justice A'Beckett Terrell awarding Woo Chew Sin, a Chinese Contractor, the sum of $650 for the erection of a cabin, built for the purpose of the filming of the picture "Boo-oo" against the co-director and business manager of a Paramount unit, was heard recently in the Court of Appeal, Singapore, Mr. Justice McKelwaine presiding, assisted by Mr. Justice Mills and Mr. Justice Murray Ansley.

The appellant, M. John Eugene Burch, was represented by Dr. C. H. Withers Payne and the respondent by Mr. A. De Mello.

Dr. Withers Payne submitted that the learned judge was wrong in holding that the plaintiff was entitled to recover the sum of $650 in respect of the cabin, because plaintiff had in fact not completed his contract which was to deliver the article, completed, within a week of the order.

Counsel further submitted that the cabin had never been painted and was therefore not completed.

Holding that there was only one contract to contend with, Mr. De Mello for the plaintiff—respondent, submitted that his client had completed the contract substantially and that Mr. Justice Terrell was correct in granting him the sum of $650, which was $50 less than the contract price, the $50 being deducted on account of the absence of painting.

Judgment was reserved.

Rats Destroy Aerodrome

Rats have destroyed an aerodrome specially constructed as a provisional landing ground at Mohul Bhim about 100 miles from Karachi.

Officials were astonished some time back to discover that the ground was yielding even to the slightest pressure and no plane could land with safety.

It was then revealed that thousands of rats had invaded the ground and tunnelled it through and through. Poison was spread to kill the rats in vast quantities but it seemed they were immune from it.

Gassing, firing, trapping and all other modern devices were employed against them, but to no effect.

Exasperated, the authorities finally gave in and the rats are now in full charge of the aerodrome.

CONFESSION OF UNSOLVED MURDER

A State trooper, garbed in the robes of a priest, has obtained a 10-year-old unsolved murder in Seattle and has raised a storm of protests from religious organisations in this State.

Sergeant Joe McCauley, who pretended to be a priest, obtained the confession of the slaying of Ensign James Eugene Bassett 10 years ago from a 73-year-old woman convict, Mrs. Mary Eleanor Smith.

In her confession, Mrs. Smith implicated her son, de Castro Earl Mayer, who is now serving a life sentence. At first he volunteered to plead guilty to the murder, but later he repudiated his offer, saying it was made only to protect his mother, who he said, had been forced into telling how they had slain Bassett.

Mr. Smith described to the officer, whom she thought was a priest how she said her son buried it bit by bit. They had murdered him to rob him.

When mother and son met for the first time in 10 years after the confession, Mrs. Smith tearfully attempted to persuade her son to confess his part.

"Quite your nerves," he reported. "You're all upset." Then he asked her if she knew that she had been deceived by trooper.

"Yes," Mrs. Smith replied, "I know it now. But I have no regrets."

Messrs. Chang Ting-miu and Kuo Yu-shou, former Special Inspectors of the Ministry of Education, have been appointed secretaries to the Ministry, says a dispatch to the "Morning Leader."

Reports continue to come in of many Japanese troops being transferred from North China to Manchukuo, most of the stories containing hints of trouble in the latter area. A Peiping message states that the Japanese spokesman there replied to queries on the subject that he was unable to explain why so many Japanese troops had passed through Shanhaikuan northward.

A Moscow message says that the Japanese authorities have detained a Soviet vessel, which went aground off the Laperouse Strait and have placed the Russian captain in prison, thereby causing considerable indignation to the Soviets who express the opinion that the Japanese should have rendered assistance to the stranded ship rather than to have arrested it.

"The Good Earth," film adaptation of the famous novel by Pearl S. Buck starring Paul Muni and Luise Rainer (in picture above), returns to the King's Theatre today for a short season. Sweeping in scope but penetrating and human, the story deals with the life and fortunes of Wang Lung, the Chinese farmer who later becomes a rich country gentleman. The film follows the novel faithfully, and every incident, from the marriage of Wang Lung and O-Lan, the slave girl, with which the book opens, to the death of O-Lan and the marriage of the younger Wang, is perfectly portrayed. Every detail, including even the conversation between the characters, is kept intact.

The picture is one of the artistic triumphs of recent screen history and, in addition to Muni and Miss Rainer, boasts of a splendid supporting cast including Walter Connolly, Charles Grapewin, Tilly Losch, Harold Huber, Jessie Ralph, Keye Luke, Soo Young and Roland Lui and Lotus Lui.

SHANGHAI RESIDENTS
Of special interest to residents in the Far East is the fact that Roland and Lotus Lui, whose real names are Maurice and Doris Lui, were born and bred in Shanghai. Roland attended the Shanghai Public School and his sister the Public School for Girls. They were very well-known in the latter port.

Lotus Lui recently appeared with great success in a feature part in "SOLUTION NO. 18" ORASIGAIT MAR WITH ANTEADOL LATESTONINIP THERRETRITE THOMPSONAL T RABAT MOPASS ELINIGERIAIT TED CANASTER TASHISTANHOPE ASPERSLOW T BAHUSIASONIA BINEATIREND ALEHATEITEND

LOCAL INTEREST
Additional interest is lent to the picture by the fact that Mr. James Szeming Lee, brother of Mr. Li Chor-chi of Hong Kong, was technical adviser on the production, while all the settings and property were in charge of Mr. Tom Gubbins, former well-known local resident, who has for many years operated the Asiatic Costume in Los Angeles.

STATE SUPPORT FOR INDIAN DANCING
An appeal for State support to save India's great heritage of dancing was made by the distinguished Indian danseuse, Menaka, at a reception given to her on her return from Europe with her ballet after an extensive tour of the West.

Menaka, replying to speeches of welcome, contrasted the conditions of dancing in Western countries with those in India, where, she said, the real classical dance was fast disappearing for lack of appreciation and patronage. Only State support, she said, could now save India's great heritage of classical dancing. The great masters of the dance who were still alive must be provided with adequate means of livelihood, and opportunities for training pupils.

That could only be achieved by founding State theatres and training schools throughout India. Menaka won three prizes at the International Dance Competition at Berlin in 1936.

PEOPLE'S POLITICAL COUNCIL HOLDS INAUGURAL MEETING

Questions At Issue

M.P.'s WANT TO KNOW JAPAN'S ATTITUDE

London, July 7. Representations are being made both in Tokyo and Shanghai to obtain the removal of restrictions on travel in trains by Chinese workmen of British concerns, said Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in answer to a question in the House of Commons yesterday.

So far, said Mr. Butler, the Japanese had refused to accede to the British requests on the score of military necessity and the maintenance of peace and order.

Sir John Wardlaw-Milne, (Conservative) asked if the Government could furnish the replies from the Japanese Government to the British protests of December 31, 1937, April 5, April 6 and April 11, in connection with recent cases of assault by Japanese on British subjects in the International Settlement.

UGAKI'S PROMISE

Mr. Butler replied that, shortly after taking office, General Ugaki, the new Japanese Foreign Secretary, informed Sir Robert Craigie, British Ambassador in Tokyo, that he intended to examine personally all questions at issue between the British and Japanese Governments.

Lord Halifax, the Foreign Secretary, is asking Sir Robert Craigie whether he can report any progress in these cases.

Mr. Butler, replying to Sir John Haslam, (Conservative) said that Lord Halifax was asking the British Embassy in Shanghai to report regarding the allegation that Japanese commercial shipping does not pay regular harbour dues and fees in Shanghai.

Sir John Haslam requested that a strong protest be made to Japan against such serious discrimination against foreign ships. (Reuter).

FORERUNNER OF FUTURE CHINESE PARLIAMENT

Hankow, July 7.

The first session of the People's Political Council, which is to be regarded as the forerunner of the future Chinese Parliament, opened here yesterday. The President of the Council, which is composed of 200 members of various callings and occupations and representing 28 provinces of China, is Mr. Wang Ching-wei. The greater part of the members of the Council belongs to the Kuomintang, but the Communist Party is represented by eight members, and it may be added that the Council also numbers among its members nine women.

The task of the People's Political Council will be to supervise the Government's policy, to submit proposals to the Government and to assist the Government in reconstruction work and in the struggle against Japan.

The first session of the Council was opened with singing of the National Anthem and reading of the political testament of the late President Sun Yat-sen, founder of the Chinese Republic.

After a three minutes' silence, Mr. Wang Ching-wei, delivered the inaugural address. He began his declaration by referring to the Sino-Japanese conflict whereby, he pointed out, no fewer than 1,500,000 soldiers and civilians had lost their lives up to March of this year.

CONSIDERABLE OPTIMISM
The declaration was marked, nevertheless, by considerable optimism.

"Not only the soldiers and the civilian population in the war zones, but the entire people of China is willing to make all sacrifices demanded by them and to continue the struggle till victory is won," declared Mr. Wang Ching-wei.

The address was followed by the reading of a message from the President of the Chinese National Government, Mr. Lin Sen.

Marshal Chiang Kai-shek then delivered a brief address. The Marshal pointed out that the reconstruction of China, which had been begun by the Chinese Government and which in due time would have made China a strong nation, had been deliberately interrupted by Japan in order to weaken China, since Japan was of the view that a weak China could be more easily controlled by Japan than a strong one.

NATION'S SUPPORT
The Marshal stressed that the Chinese Army, which up to now had borne the brunt of fighting in the struggle against the aggressor, must be supported by the entire Chinese nation.

Before the session closed, Mr. Chan Yi-lin, one of the representatives of the province of Kansu, assured Marshal Chiang Kai-shek that the Council would do everything in its power to assist the Government in its labours.

During the next few days, the Government will submit to the Council exhaustive reports reviewing the military and political situation. The Council will then appoint a number of Committees whose task will be to draft proposals which are to be submitted to the Government.

According to present plans, the first plenary session of the Political Council will take place on July 15. (Transocean).

KING LEOPOLD'S VISIT TO THE NETHERLANDS

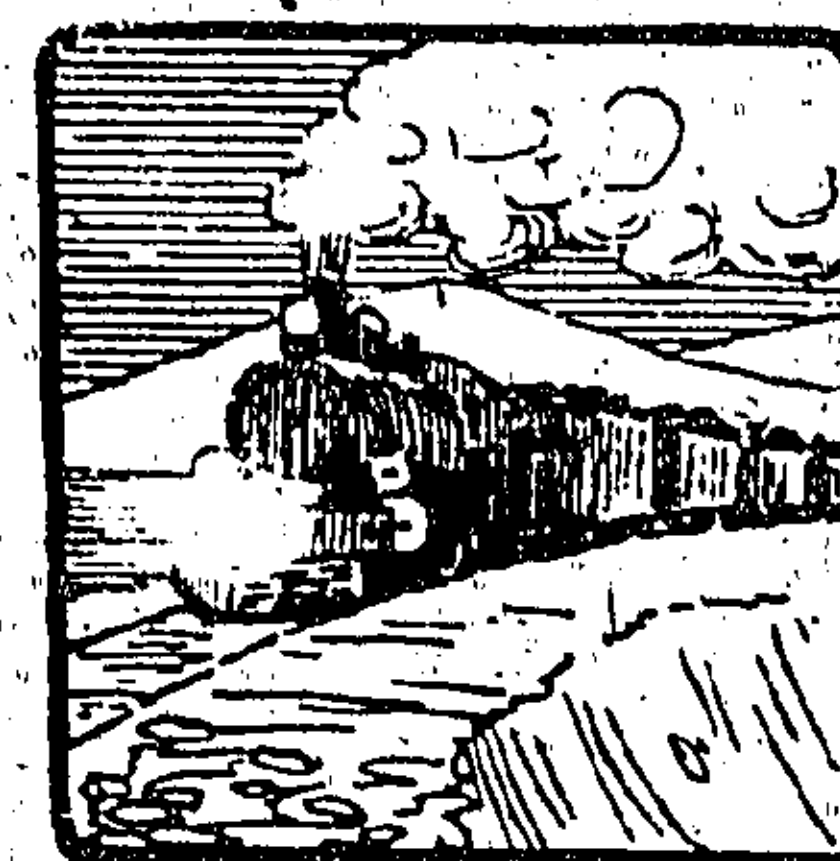

Amsterdam, July 7.

The state visit of King Leopold III of Belgium to the Netherlands has been planned for September 16.

King Leopold will be received in Amsterdam by Queen Wilhelmina and will be guest at the Royal palace.

The visit is in connection with the festivities celebrating the 40th anniversary of Queen Wilhelmina's coronation. (Transocean).

FIVE BILLS GIVEN FIRST READING

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL MEETING

Supplementary Budget Of Over Seven Lakhs

FOUR GENERAL BILLS, amending respectively the Registration of Persons Ordinance 1934, the Merchandise Marks Ordinance 1890, the Bankruptcy Ordinance 1931 and the Dentistry Ordinance 1924, and a Bill "to authorise the appropriation of a supplementary sum of $774,321.44 to defray the charges of the year 1937," were given first reading at a meeting of the Legislative Council yesterday afternoon.

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, presided, and those present were:—

His Excellency the General Officer Commanding, Major-General A. W. Bartholomew; The Colonial Secretary (Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith); The Attorney General (Hon. Mr. J. A. Fraser); The Secretary for Chinese Affairs (Hon. Mr. R. A. C. North); The Colonial Treasurer and Financial Secretary (Hon. Mr. Sidney Caine); The Director of Public Works (Hon. Mr. R. M. Henderson); The Hon. Sir Henry Pollock; The Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson; The Hon. Mr. T. N. Chau; The Harbour Master (Hon. Commr. G. F. Hole, R.N. (ret'd)); The Commissioner of Police (Hon. Mr. T. H. King); The Director of Medical Services (Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke); The Hon. Mr. Stanley H. Dodwell; The Hon. Dr. Li Shu-fan; The Hon. Mr. A. L. Shields; Deputy Clerk of Councils (Mr. T. Megarry).

PERSONS REGISTRATION

The four Bills were introduced by the Attorney General, the Hon. Mr. J. A. Fraser.

The first called the Registration of Persons Amendment Ordinance 1938, provides for amendment to the original Ordinance by the addition of the following section immediately after section 7 thereof:—

7A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 20 of the Magistrates Ordinance, 1932, any complaint or information in respect of any offence under this Ordinance may be made or laid within two years after the commission of the offence.

Objects and Reasons

Owing to the provisions of section 20 of the Magistrates Ordinance, 1932, a person who commits an offence under the Registration of Persons Ordinance, No. 3 of 1934, cannot be proceeded against after the expiry of six months from the date on which the offence was committed, unless information has been laid or complaint made before that time.

Cases have occurred in which aliens who have failed to report their intended departure from the Colony, in contravention of section 2 (2) of the Ordinance, at Police Headquarters, have, on returning to the Colony after the six-months period, been immune from prosecution, the offence not having come to the notice of the authorities within the prescribed time.

Clause 2 of this Bill, by inserting a new section 7A in the principal Ordinance substituting a two-years' for the six-months' limitation, is intended to cure this defect.

MERCHANDISE MARKS

The second, called the Merchandise Marks Amendment Ordinance 1938, provides for the following amendment:—

2. Sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (e) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Merchandise Marks Ordinance, 1890, is amended by the insertion of the words "factory, premises," before the word "place."

Objects and Reasons

1. By section 2 (1) (e) (ii) of the Merchandise Marks Ordinance, 1890, it is provided that the expression "trade description" means any description, statement, or other indication, direct or indirect, as to the place or country in which any goods were made or produced.

2. In statutes the word "place" is generally found in conjunction with other words which give it a colour and control its interpretation (see "Place" in Stroud's Judicial Dictionary). So that although the word if it stood alone might apply to a factory or premises, its conjunction in the enactment in question with the word "country" seems to indicate a geographical meaning such as town or district.

3. It is consequently considered probable, that a false statement in a declaration to the effect that certain goods were made in a certain factory or on certain premises would not be covered by the present definition so as to justify prosecution under the penal provisions of the Ordinance.

4. The object of this Amending Bill is to remove doubts by inserting the words "factory, premises," before the word "place" in section 2 (1) (e) (ii) of the principal Ordinance.

BANKRUPTCY AMENDMENT
The third Bill, called the Bankruptcy Amendment Ordinance 1938, provides for amendment of Section 75 of the original Ordinance by the repeal of sub-section (2) thereof and the substitution of the following sub-section thereof:—

(2) No person shall be appointed Official Receiver or Deputy Official Receiver unless at the date of such appointment he is a barrister, advocate, solicitor or proctor or a member of the Colonial Legal Service or has successfully passed the examinations required before admission of a barrister, advocate, solicitor, law agent or proctor.

Objects and Reasons
1. Clause 2 of this Bill amends the principal Ordinance, No. 10 of 1931, by substituting for sub-section 2 of section 75 thereof a new sub-section corresponding to section 2 of the Crown Solicitors Ordinance, 1912, as enacted by section 2 of the Crown Solicitors Ordinance, 1912, as enacted by section 2 of Ordinance No. 31 of 1935, but omitting the words "law agent," rendered unnecessary by the Solicitors (Scotland) Act, 1933, (23 and 24 Geo. 5, c. 21).

2. Under old sub-section (2) only barristers or solicitors are eligible for appointment as Official Receiver. By this amendment the appointment may be held by a person who is or who has successfully passed the qualifying examinations for admission as a barrister, advocate, solicitor or proctor, or by a member of the Colonial Legal Service.

3. It was necessary to appoint the Official Receiver to act as from 25th May, 1938, in another legal post during the temporary absence of the holder of that post, and to appoint to carry out the duties of Official Receiver another member of the Colonial Legal Service who was formerly a solicitor but who has relinquished that qualification in order to be called to the Bar.

4. For the reasons given in the preceding paragraph the operation of this Ordinance is expressed to take effect from 25th May, 1938.

DENTISTRY AMENDMENT

The fourth Bill, called the Dentistry Amendment Ordinance, provides for the further amendment of Sub-section (3) of section 5 of the original Ordinance, as amended by the Dentistry Amendment Ordinance 1928, as follows:—

(i) by the substitution of the following paragraph for paragraph (b) thereof:—

(b) has ceased to reside in the Colony and has either not returned, or has in writing notified the Director of Medical Services of his intention not to return to the Colony for a period of five years;

(ii) by the insertion of the following paragraph immediately after paragraph (b) thereof:—

(bb) within 3 years of the sending to him by registered post at his address on the register of a letter by the Director of Medical Services, inquiring whether he has ceased to practise or has changed his address, fails to return an answer to such letter.

Objects and Reasons

1. By section 5 (3) of the Dentistry Ordinance, No. 16 of 1914, the power of the Director of Medical Services to remove from the Dental Register the name of a person who has ceased to reside in the Colony is limited to the names of persons who have "ceased for a period extending over five years" so to reside.

2. This provision has resulted in the retention on the Register of the names of persons who have long severed all connexion with Hong Kong.

3. This Bill substitutes a new paragraph (b) and adds a new paragraph (bb) to section 5 (3) of the principal Ordinance, making better provision for the removal therefrom of the names of persons who have ceased to reside in the Colony and do not intend to return, or who cannot be traced, and thus enabling the Register to be kept up to date.

LOAN EXPENDITURE

After the Financial Report for the year 1937 had been passed unanimously, on the motion of the Colonial Secretary, seconded by the Financial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. Caine said:

"There are three resolutions in my name relating to loan expenditure which are inter-connected and I propose, with your permission, to address the Council on all of them together. They have been found necessary to deal with three matters."

"First, the Director of Colonial Audit has pointed out that the authority of this Council has never been obtained for the actual expenditure on the Shing Mun Gorge Dam in 1936, which exceeded the sum authorized to be advanced in that year from the surplus balances of the Colony in accordance with this Council's resolution of March 19, 1936; and a similar excess was incurred in the expenditure on the Airport in that year."

"Secondly, there was a similar excess in 1937 over the amount authorized to be advanced for the work by the Council's resolutions of September 29, 1937. This latter excess was due, not to an increase in the expenditure, but to the failure of receipts from the sale of plant belonging to the loan works to come up to the amount estimated to be credited from that source."

FURTHER CREDITS

"As it happened, sufficiently favourable offers for the remaining plant were not received during the remainder of 1937, but further credits aggregating over $30,000 have been received in the current year and it is possible that still further sums will be received later in the year, so that the excess in 1937 is more apparent than real."

"Lastly, with the approval of the Secretary of State for the Colonies and the concurrence of members of the Finance Committee, it has been decided to charge to the loan account the cost of the remedial

POLICE OFFICER MARRIED

MOTTRAM-WALSH

A very pretty wedding was solemnised at St. Joseph's Church, Garden Road, yesterday when Miss Tessie Walsh became the bride of Mr. Charles Mottram, of the Hong Kong Police Force.

The Rev. Fr. Brooks officiated. Given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. J. Bryant, the bride was charmingly dressed in a white satin gown with a long train. She carried a bouquet of white arm lilies.

Mrs. Bryant was matron-of-honour and the duties of best man were discharged by Mr. J. F. Scott.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Gloucester Hotel when a large number of friends attended to offer their felicitations.

LOCAL MEMORIAL MEETING

Chinese Chamber Of Commerce Foregather

A memorial meeting marking the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese hostilities was held yesterday at the Chinese Chamber of Commerce when Mr. Li Sing-kui presided, before a large gathering.

The meeting opened with a three minutes' silence after which the assembly bowed to the Chinese National flag and to the names of those who have died for their country.

Mr. Li Sing-kui addressed the gathering saying that July 7 marked the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

Since then, said Mr. Li, many lives, homes and factories have been ruthlessly destroyed by Japanese bombings.

Those who were lucky enough to escape these terrors should do their best in helping China to fight against Japanese terrorism.

China as a whole, is a much more united nation than she ever was before. If every Chinese man would help China by doing his duty, then it would be impossible for Japan to conquer China, Mr. Li concluded.

Cries of "Long Live China" concluded the meeting.

Mr. Lau King-ling made a presentation of two Chinese scrolls with slogans to the Chamber while 20 pieces of rare Chinese curios valued from $30 to $200 each was presented by Mr. Chou Wol-wun of Shanghai. The proceeds from the sale of these curios will be donated to the War Relief fund.

FUNERAL OF MRS. T. KAI LIANG

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon of the late Mrs. T. Kai Liang, wife of the Manager of the Bank of Canton, who died on Tuesday.

The late Mrs. Liang who was 38 years of age, spent most of her life in welfare work, being especially noted in the activities of the International Women's Relief Association of which she was a founder and a member of the Standing Committee.

The hearse left the Brown, Jones funeral parlour shortly after 12.30 p.m. for the Yat Bit Ting, Kennedy Town, where a short memorial service was observed.

Just before the funeral, crowds of people paid their last respects to the remains of Mrs. Liang, and the room in which her coffin was placed was occupied to the utmost with floral tributes and wreaths. Among those present were Madame Kum Kai-hau, Madame Wu

RECORD SCHOOL ENROLMENT

"Owing to the unsettled conditions in China during the latter part of 1937, there was a marked influx of both Chinese and Europeans to the more secure confines of the Colony, accompanied by a sharp rise in the attendance figure of educational institutions. The maximum enrolment in all classes of schools reached the record figure of 88,993," states the Report of the Director of Education for the year 1937, tabled in Legislative Council yesterday.

JAPANESE PLANES BOMB RAILWAYS

Canton, July 7

The Canton-Hankow and Canton-Samshui Railways were raided by Japanese planes this morning. Points bombed on the first line included Yingtak, Kuntien, Laitung, Pakong and Yuentan.

One of the bombers is reported to have been brought down by Chinese anti-aircraft batteries near Yingtak. The wreckage of the ill-fated machine has been located, but the pilots who descended by their parachutes have escaped. Chinese military authorities are combing the countryside for them.

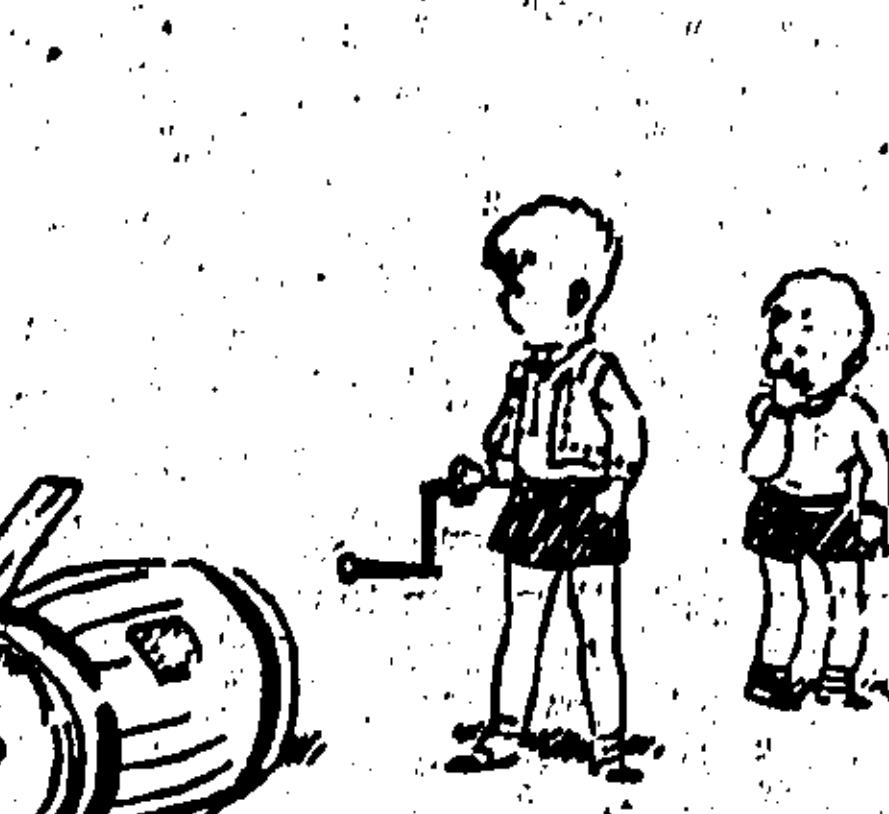

The raiders failed to reach Canton. (Central News).

LANDLORD SUE

After evidence had been heard in the Summary Court yesterday in an action brought by Lo Kwai-wong, trading as the Sun Man Sewing Factory, against his landlord Tong Ying-cheung for wrongful entry and assault on April 29 last at plaintiff's premises, the hearing was adjourned to July 28.

Mr. C. A. Sutherland Russ is representing the plaintiff and Mr. M. A. da Silva is appearing for the defendant.

Defendant brought a counter-claim against plaintiff for $14, being arrears of rent for one month and five days and $8.18 being for unpaid electric light consumption and means profits up to the day of possession of the premises.

PRESENTATION TO MR. A.E. SILKSTONE

The Kowloon Cricket Club was the scene of a pleasant function yesterday evening when the presentation of a silver cigarette-box was made to Mr. A. E. Silkstone, who is leaving the Colony tomorrow on board the Bolisevain.

The presentation was made by the President, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell and Mr. Silkstone suitably replied.

Mrs. Silkstone was the recipient of a gold and platinum wrist watch band together with a tea-wood cabinet.

JAPAN'S LABOUR PROBLEMS

ON ACCOUNT OF Japan's war of aggression against China Japan has had so great a demand for labour for her munition and heavy industries that there are not sufficient men to meet it.

With the war extending from North to Central China, the demand for labour on her basic and munition industries has shown a considerable increase. Accordingly, the owners of the factories concerned employed all conceivable methods to obtain workmen and a sharp competition among the factories ensued. They advertised in the daily papers the number of workmen required and this, more often than not, exceeded the three thousand mark.

BILLS WERE posted outside factories in trams and on walls as well as telegraph posts all over the country. These posters asked the workmen to "persuade" their friends from the other concerns to come over.

A GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT was made off Peter to pay Paul led to such chaotic conditions that certain large concerns agreed not to resort to this desperate method. They combined and even signed a gentleman's agreement—whatever that might mean in Japan!

A simple solution might have been an increase of wages for certain industries although, as we have stated above, the demand for certain classes of labour has greatly increased in Japan. Despite this their wages and working conditions have not been increased or improved. In point of fact the contrary is the case.

THE CAPITALISTS of the war industries know only their own profit so that as the working hours are extended and the protective legislations modified, the workmen only obtain declining health from the prosperity of these industries.

What has given the Japanese workman the most difficulties is the system of temporary labour. The working of the system results in the lowering of the working conditions. He is exploited by the factory owner as well as having to pay squeeze to the foreman.

In short the working conditions appear to be the worst one can find under any modern labour system. In addition the workmen in arsenals are compelled by the military authorities to take oaths that they would, if necessary, leave the Labour Unions.

One, then, can very well understand the reason of the Mobilisation Bill and the Bill for State control of the electrical enterprises, this being undoubtedly due to the degeneration of the Parliamentary System in Japan and the ascendancy of the power of the militarists.

UNMUZZLED DOGS

A fine of $15 was imposed at the Kowloon Court yesterday, by Mr. Barnett on K. F. Ermy of the Basil Mission, Tai Po Road, for having allowed his Alsatian dog to wander on Nathan Road, near the Fire Station without muzzle or lead.

A fine of $10 was imposed on Mrs. Souza, of 232 Nathan Road, when she appeared before Mr. Macfadyen on a similar summons.

Mr. W. E. Curtis appeared as complainant at the Kowloon Court yesterday when a fine of $28, equivalent to 20 days wages of the responsible foreman, was imposed by Mr. Barnett on the manager of the Wong On Ki Co., charged with permitting his employees to work after 10 p.m., thereby disturbing, with the noise of hammering, the rest of people who resided in the neighbourhood.

MORE AIR RAID SHELTERS FOR CANTON

Canton, July 7. The Air Raid Precautions Headquarters, under the direction of Generals Yu Han-mou and Wu Tschun, will build 400 more shelters for the refugees.

Those responsible for large building construction companies are invited to submit their plans. The work will be started immediately after suitable sites have been chosen and will be completed at the end of the month. (International)

BRITONS' RELIEF DONATION

Canton, July 7. Mr. Tseng Yang-fu, Mayor of Canton, was today the grateful recipient of a cheque for H.K.$500 from Mr. A. P. Blunt, the British Consul-General, being a donation from Britons in Kwangtung towards the relief of Kwantung victims of Japanese air raids.

The sum represented the expenses for a ball which would have been held at Canton on the occasion of His Majesty the King's birthday, but was cancelled owing to the Japanese mass raid.

It was decided that the money thus saved be forwarded to the Chinese authorities in Canton, for the relief of Chinese victims.

Immediately upon receipt of the cheque from Mr. Blunt, Mayor Tseng sent a reply, expressing his thanks and those of the Canton people. (Central News).

HEAVY RAIDS ON WUCHOW

Canton, July 7. Wuchow suffered three heavy Japanese air raids in as many hours this morning according to reliable Chinese sources. Seventy-five bombs and thousands of pamphlets are said to have been dropped on the city.

No details are available but the messages state that casualties have been "very heavy." (Reuter).

SPECIAL CLASSES IN MANDARIN AT UNIVERSITY

Special classes in Mandarin (Kuo Yu), the Chinese national language, will commence at the Hong Kong University on Monday, July 11, and will be held every week on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Classes will be from 7.30 to 9.30 a.m. or 4.30 to 6.30 p.m. or 7 to 9 p.m. The fee is $5 a month. Application forms may be obtained from the Alumni Association, Gloucester Building or from the University Union clerk.

The classes are under the auspices of the Hong Kong Chinese Teachers Association.

CANTON BUSINESS REAWAKENING

Store And Shops The business life of Canton is at present showing more signs of activity as many stores and shops have resumed business.

At least about 80 per cent of the stores and shops are again doing business. Restaurants which had temporarily closed down are gradually reopening.

Many residents have returned to the city as the Japanese air bombardments are not so serious.

EXEMPTION FROM ACTIVE SERVICE

Hankow, July 7. According to a decree issued by the Ministry of War, the only male issue of any family in the country is exempted from active military service. The decree points out the fact that the whole family relies on the support of the only male issue for their livelihood and thus such exemption is granted. (International)

GOLD SAVED FROM GROUNDING SHIP

Ottawa, July 7. Gold to the value of $300,000 was secretly unloaded off a British steamer in the St. Lawrence River after the vessel grounded.

The gold from the Bank of Canada was destined for London. It was transferred to another liner. (Reuter).

work at Pineapple Pass Dam which has unfortunately become necessary.

"This is estimated at a maximum of $30,000 and it is necessary to provide both for an increase in the total expenditure under Item 2 of the loan schedule and also for the advance from surplus balances during the year 1938 of a sum sufficient to cover this expenditure.

AIR CONTRIBUTION

"It so happens that a credit has been received under another item of the loan schedule. A sum of $100,000 has been received as a contribution from the Air Ministry to the cost of the Airport dealt with in Item 6 of the loan schedule. This item has therefore been reduced by that amount. Item 2 has been increased by $30,000 and Item 8 by $20,000.

"It is hoped that expenditure on the Pineapple Pass work will not eat up all the increase now made under Item 2, particularly after allowance is made for the sums to be credited to that head for sale of plant, and if that hope is fulfilled savings will be available for transfer to Item 8, the new Central Market.

"Any necessary resolution dealing with such further transfer will be submitted in due course when the actual net expenditure under Item 2 is known."

RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Caine then moved the following resolutions:—

"That this Council approves, under section 3 (2) of the Hong Kong Dollar Loan Ordinance, No. 11 of 1934, of the following transfers in the schedule:—

Item 2.—Shing Mun Valley Water Scheme to be increased from $10, 132,877.92 to $10,212,877.92.

Item 6.—Airport to be reduced from $1,007,485.92 to $907,485.92.

Item 8.—Other Public Works to be increased from $889,000 to $909,000.

"That this Council sanctions the expenditure on Loan Works authorized under Ordinance No. 11 of 1934, of the total net sums as enumerated below and the meeting of such sums by advances from the surplus balances of the Colony pending the issue of the remainder of the Loan authorized under the said Ordinance.

Head 2 (b) (3), Shing Mun Valley Water Scheme, 2nd Section, Gorge Dam.—During the financial year 1938, $2,239,103.69; during the financial year 1937, $388,223.77.

Head 6 (b), Airport, Airport and Seaplane Slipway.—During the financial year 1938, $170,254.87.

"That this Council approves of the expenditure during the financial year 1938 of the various items of loan works authorized under Ordinance No. 11 of 1934, as specified below of a sum of $915,577.21 which sum shall be met by advances from the surplus balances of the Colony pending the issue of the remainder of the loan authorized under the said Ordinance.

Item 2.—Shing Mun Valley Water Schemes, (b) Second section, (3) Gorge Dam—$80,000.00.

Item 4.—New Gaoi at Stanley—$60,000.00.

Item 6.—Airport.—(b) Airport and Seaplane Slipway—$17,000.00; (c) Wireless Telegraph Station—$55,727.21.

Item 8.—Other Public Works:—(a) Central Market—$889,000.00; (b) Wholesale Market—$13,850.00.

Total: $915,577.21.

Seconded by the Hon. Colonial Secretary, the resolutions were all adopted.

LAKES BILL

In moving the first reading of the supplementary appropriation Bill of $774,321.44, the Financial Secretary said:—

"Copies of a detailed statement of expenditure and of a report on the finances of the Colony for the year 1937 are now before Honourable members. The various excesses over the estimated and appropriated sums are explained in the detailed statement of expenditure and these extra appropriations have received the approval of the Finance Committee and of this Council in the usual way.

The sum of $774,321.44 set out in Clause 2 of the Bill represents the total of the supplementary appropriation required under the several heads without any deduction for under-expenditure in other Departments and other Heads of the Estimates. Actual savings on other heads of expenditure more than offset the excesses and total expenditure for the year 1937 was $147,938 less than the Estimate.

BISHOP HALL PAYS TRIBUTE: GOVERNOR AND LADY NORTHCOTE ATTEND PRIZE GIVING

His Excellency the Governor and Lady Northcote were present yesterday, at the Prize Giving of the Diocesan Girls' School when the Headmistress, Miss H. D. Sawyer, read the report on the activities of the school for the term 1936-1937. Bishop Hall and Mrs. Matthews also spoke and the prizes were distributed by Lady Northcote.

Bishop Hall told of the early history of the Diocesan Boys' and Girls' Schools. The Schools owe their origin to the establishment in 1860 by the first Bishop of Hong Kong, Bishop George Smith, of the Diocesan Native Female Training School. Funds were collected by Mrs. Smith, the wife of the first Bishop and Miss Baxter, of the Female Educational Society, was the first superintendent.

By 1870 the name of the school had been altered to the Diocesan Female School, and the privilege of attending the school had been extended to boys. When Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Arthur took charge of the school in that year the pupils numbered only 23!

Bishop Hall spoke of Miss Sawyer and of her invaluable work during the last 16 years as Headmistress of the School.

"Miss Sawyer has kept constantly before her the needs and interests of local girls. We have welcomed visitors who in a sense are transients in this Colony. English girls and Chinese girls whose homes are not in Hong Kong, but she has always kept to the forefront that the first objective of the school was the wellbeing of those lives which have to be lived in this Colony," he said.

"One reason why we on the School Council are glad that Miss Sawyer is going to the Junior School is that we know many of her old students who are now married and living in Hong Kong are eager to entrust their little ones to her care."

In conclusion, Bishop Hall thanked Miss Sawyer on behalf of the School Council, the School, and the community.

THE REPORT

Miss Sawyer then read her report:—

Lessons began on September 7. We admitted 61 girls and 4 boys as new pupils and there were 304 on the register for September as against 303 in the previous July. This number does not include seven pupils who entered the newly formed Commercial Class which is under the care of Mrs. Bird. The reason for this class is because the Education Authorities have decreed that the School Leaving Certificates must be taken by girls in Class 2, thus bringing their School life to a close a year before they have qualified for the top of the School. I personally am very sorry that this is so.

NOT EXISTED It was in order to keep Class 2 girls in the school for another year or 9 months that I was willing to do so.

FINANCIAL RESULT

As to the general financial outcome of last year, I do not propose to recapitulate the detailed figures set out in the Report which has been circulated; but Honourable members are aware that the result was much more favourable than originally anticipated, a surplus of $1,085,146 being realized instead of a deficit of $3,498,910 as estimated.

"This was due to the general improvement in trade during the first half of the year and in the latter half to the increase of population due to the hostilities in China which for the time being has improved the revenue of the Colony."

"On the motion of the Financial Secretary, seconded by the Colonial Secretary, the motion was carried unanimously.

The scheduled expenditure under the appropriation is as follows:—

Treasury	$ 9,218.79
Fire Brigade	17,965.58
Attorney General	2,769.88
Land Office	2,062.54
Magistracy, Hong Kong	2,608.80

FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF WAR MARKED BY FIFTEEN BOMBING ATTEMPTS IN S'HA1

SIX CHINESE, TWO JAPANESE AND SIKH KILLED IN SETTLEMENT

Seaforths Take Up Positions

Shanghai, July 7.

The first anniversary of the outbreak of Sino-Japanese hostilities was ushered in with several shooting and bomb-throwing incidents. The outrages were acts of revenge of patriotic Chinese terrorists against pro-Japanese Chinese, Japanese civilians and Japanese sentries. Up to ten o'clock this morning fifteen such attempts were recorded in Shanghai.

The first occurred at five o'clock this morning when two bombs were thrown on the Bund whereupon Japanese troops immediately entered the International Settlement and blocked the streets. Shortly afterwards the Seaforth Highlanders took up positions in front of the Japanese detachment. Two Japanese, six Chinese and one Sikh were killed this morning.

GENERALISSIMO WARNS NATION OF GREATER HARDSHIPS

The accumulated efforts of all citizens will form a powerful force to strike and defeat the enemy and win the ultimate victory, he emphasized.

No less important than the contribution of efforts is the conservation of the nation's material and financial resources for the prosecution of the war. All Chinese should practice thriftiness, for every cent and article they economize will add to the national strength of resistance.

CO-ORDINATED ACTION

Yet another contributory factor to the final victory, Generalissimo Chiang pointed out, is close co-operation and co-ordinated action throughout the country. The Generalissimo questioned whether during the past year the various fighting units at the front have effectively co-ordinated their movements, whether the political activities and military operations have been well correlated, whether the troops and civilians have closely co-operated and whether the economy and productive enterprises have lived up to the demands of the war of resistance.

Specially emphasizing the importance of national unification and co-operation, Generalissimo Chiang stated that China's future depends largely upon whether her people will prize the final victory of the nation above everything else and struggle on with a united front.

TURNING POINT

Generalissimo Chiang predicted that the next month or two will see the turning point in the Sino-Japanese hostilities. He exhorted the troops on all fronts to fight the enemy with their might and main in the course of the decisive battle in the Wuhan area now looming. Those units defending the area, he instructed, should have the determination to fight to the last man rather than yield an inch of ground.

In the meantime, taking advantage of the transfer of large enemy units for the Wuhan battle, the civilians in the areas now under Japanese military occupation should rise up in arms to harass and drive away the enemy.

Generalissimo Chiang then called the attention of the Chinese people to the sufferings of the 30,000,000 of their brethren in the four North-Eastern Provinces which have up till now been under Japanese armed occupation for seven years, and also of those of the large number of Chinese in the areas occupied by the Japanese since the outbreak of the current hostilities.

He also called their attention to the atrocities of the Japanese in the occupied areas, including looting, rape, kidnapping and employment of opium and narcotics to weaken and demoralize the people there, as well as the setting up of bogus governments to disintegrate the country.

SINISTER DESIGNS

Despite these malicious actions and sinister designs on the part of Japan, Generalissimo Chiang was confident that China will emerge victorious in the present war. History has shown that China again and again defeated and subjugated

Japanese Hopes Dashed By Amazing Chinese Resistance

END NOT IN SIGHT

Shanghai, July 7.

Today marks the first anniversary of the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese hostilities, which started with the Lukouchiao Incident on a midsummer night on July last year.

Chinese, both in China and abroad, are marking the day by keeping a three minutes' silence in honour of their dead and by eating nothing but vegetables.

In Japan, there will be one minute's silence during which the nation will offer prayers for its soldiers and its war dead.

Accurate figures of the losses of the two sides are unobtainable. It is generally accepted in Tokyo, however, that the Japanese losses total approximately 50,000 killed and 140,000 wounded, according to visitors from Tokyo. The visitors state that there is scarcely a family in Japan which has not a relation or intimate friend either killed or wounded. The hospitals all over the country are packed to capacity with the wounded.

Casualties on the Chinese side have been far heavier. The number of dead and wounded is conservatively estimated at least half a million. To this must be added several thousands of civilians who were killed in air raids, who died of starvation as refugees or who were "liquidated" by the Japanese as "anti-Japanese elements."

Hundreds of others have already been drowned, while thousands more are faced with ruin and starvation, through the "sudden death" drive of the Yellow and Yangtze River floods, as devastating and relentless as any "scorched earth" policy adopted by Japanese or Chinese.

A year ago, when the hostilities first began, the Japanese freely talked of a localised incident in which three or four divisions, each of some 10,000 men, would be involved. They believed that they would quickly complete the severance of North China, with its rich coal mines, from China Proper to the Japanese sphere of influence and that that would be the end of it.

Today, the Japanese are understood to have one million men in the field in China Proper, excluding naval units. In addition to this there are some 300,000 men in Manchukuo watching the Soviet frontier. Politicians in Tokyo are now talking of the hostilities lasting for 10 years.

This has been caused by the fact that, contrary to precedent in recent years, China did not stand still and watch this latest attempt at further alienation of her territory with only a "face-saving" show of resistance.

UNITED CHINA

The opposing groups in China put aside their differences and, for the first time since the Chinese Republic was born, became united in the determination to offer real resistance to the Japanese. That unity appears to have hardened with every day of the war—largely as a result of the Japanese methods of warfare.

Principal among these have been the deaths caused to civilians by their air raids, the molestation by their soldiers of women wherever they have advanced, and the "scorched earth" policy of razing whole villages to the ground by fire in an effort to combat the guerilla menace. As a result, today the Chinese Army is able to draw on almost limitless supplies of man-power.

As far as positional warfare has gone, the Japanese have won one victory after another, but none has been decisive. Moreover, their various attempts or "feints" to occupy South China have proved entirely abortive, principally owing to the strain on their man-power of the campaign in the North and the efficient defence preparations by the Chinese in the South.

NO END IN SIGHT

After a year, the end of the war does not appear yet in sight. Every month there are rumours of peace negotiations, but observers

Extensive Aerial Activity Over Large Area Of Kwangtung

FREIGHT TRAIN IS WRECKED

Canton, July 7.

Extensive aerial activity by Japanese planes over a large area of Kwangtung marked the first anniversary of the commencement of the Sino-Japanese hostilities. Although Canton was spared the railways suffered intensive bombing attacks resulting in the Canton-Hankow track being damaged in no less than seventeen places between here and Yingtak. It is reliably reported that the water tower at Yingtak and a complete freight train were wrecked by direct hits.

Repair gangs worked at full pressure throughout the afternoon in an effort to put the line in order to allow the special train carrying the German military advisers, who are travelling to Hong Kong from Hankow, to get through. However, there was no news of the train having passed Tangyuan, 35 miles north of Wongsha, up to 1 o'clock tonight.

The daily passenger train from Canton northward is cancelled and the railway is not expected to be repaired until tomorrow.

HEN'S EGGS TO POISON CROWS

An extraordinary method of ridding the district of a plague of crows, which has done much damage to crops, has been adopted by the authorities of Batekha Palanka in Belgrade.

Eggs being a favourite food of these birds, thousands of hens' eggs have been purchased, injected with poison and deposited in neighbouring woods. The results have been found so satisfactory that the peasants now bring eggs as free contributions.

HANDWRITTEN BIBLE AT GLASGOW EXHIBITION

Twenty-three years of careful handwriting went into a unique manuscript copy of the Bible which appeared in the Canadian Pavilion of the Glasgow Exhibition.

Mr. Hugh Russell, who has completed the manuscript, was born in Glasgow. He is now in his 80th year. He believes it to be the only manuscript copy of the Bible in existence.

The manuscript copy is being sent to Scotland by the Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce, Mr. W. O. Euler.

The signature of the Duke of Windsor, who autographed the book while visiting Montreal in 1919 as Prince of Wales, is on the title page.

The volume, written from an Oxford edition of the Bible, runs to 1,987 pages, all of vellum.

A group of Chinese Mohammedans numbering about 80, who arrived in Canton recently, has left for Hankow.

TO BEREAVED FAMILIES

Hankow, July 7.

Profound grief and compassion for the families of fallen heroes and officials and civilians killed in the present war is expressed by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in a special message on the occasion of the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

Pointing out that those who sacrificed their lives have shattered Japan's dreams to subjugate China and have paved the way for China's final victory, Generalissimo Chiang says that their patriotic and courageous spirit will ever live in the memory of the Chinese people.

FINAL VICTORY

Generalissimo Chiang declares that as long he lives, he will lead the 450,000,000 Chinese to continue to fight the aggressor until final victory is won so that those who have laid down their lives in defence of the nation will not have died in vain.

Stating that he considers the families of war heroes as his Generalissimo Chiang promises that the government will give them proper relief and assistance.—(Central News)

LEADERSHIP FRAISED

Chungking, July 7.

On the eve of the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese hostilities, Mr. Lin Sen, Chairman of the National Government, sent a telegram to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, expressing appreciation of his leadership in the war of resistance against Japan and urging him to continue his efforts to achieve final victory.

Mr. Lin simultaneously wire to the Chinese troops fighting at the front and the families of the war dead, "comforting" them on behalf of the whole nation.—(Central News)

MADAME SUN YAT-SEN WARNS NATION

A warning to the Chinese against Japan's constant peace gestures is sounded by Madame Sun Yat-sen in a manifesto issued on the occasion of the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

Such peace gestures, Madame Sun points out, are political manoeuvres on the part of Japan to complement her plans of military conquest of China, since China's efforts to wage a long-drawn-out war of resistance will shatter her dreams of subjugating her by military force alone. Madame Sun hopes that China will not fall into the trap.

Continuing, Madame Sun urges the Kuomintang and the National Government to exert their utmost efforts to mobilise the strength of the whole nation to resist the aggressor. In this connection, she suggests the organisation and training of the peasants, war refugees and the unemployed, the promotion of productive enterprises and the improvement of the political machinery.

Madame Sun finally hopes that the government will accept and carry out the resolutions of the People's Political Council now in session.—(Central News)

New Era Of Democratic Government For China

People's Political Council Hold Inaugural Meeting

Hankow, July 7.

Ushering in a new era of democratic government for the nation, the People's Political Council, after long preparations, held its inaugural meeting amid great expectations and acclaim yesterday afternoon.

One hundred and thirty members of the Council, headed by Mr. Wang Ching-wei, chairman, and Dr. Chang Po-li, vice-chairman, attended the auspicious gathering, which was also participated by a host of high Government officials, including Dr. H. H. Kung, General Chang Chun, General Ho Ying-chin, Dr. Wang Chung-hui, General Ho Chien, Mr. Yu Yu-jen, Mr. Chang Kia-ngau and Dr. Wong Wen-hao.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek sent a message to the gathering, in which he placed great hopes in the important work which he believed the advisory body will be able to accomplish.

After the reading of a number of telegrams by Mr. Wang Shih-shu, secretary general of the Council, the plenary meeting then proceeded to adopt several important resolutions, including the despatching of a telegram to Generalissimo Chiang, pledging the support of the Council, and another to the fighters at the front, encouraging them to fight on.

Win Same In Any Language

Kho Sin Kie and W. C. Choy both come from China—they are, in fact, China's best tennis players. Yet, they can't speak to each other in Chinese, and have to converse in English.

They met on the tennis court in the London championships at Queen's Club yesterday.

"You see," said Kho—he speaks very good English—"we have so many dialects in our country that unless we come from the same district, we can't understand each other."

Choy, who won his Blue at Cambridge, comes from Hong Kong. Kho was born in Java.

Kho, who beat H. W. Austin to win the British hard court title and become the first Chinese ever to reach world class, disposed of his countryman 6-2, 4-6, 6-0.

The last set was reminiscent of their meeting in the British hard court championships when Choy won the first two sets, led 1-0 in the third and didn't get another game—Kho winning 18 of the reel.

An Indian—Ghaus Mohammed—averted what might have been another branch of the Sino-Japanese war by beating "Y. Kuramitsu, Japan's leading player, 6-4, 7-5. If the Jap had won he'd have met Kho.

BASEBALL

NATIONALS SWAMP AMERICANS

New York, July 7.
At Crosley Field, Cincinnati, yesterday, the National League All-Stars team beat the American League representatives by four runs to one.

Brilliant pitching by the three National League pitchers throttled the batting array that was expected to swamp them.

Young Johnny Vandermeer, the sensational pitcher who recently made baseball history when he pitched two consecutive no-hit, no-run games, allowed the Americans a lone single when in the box for the first three frames.

Vandermeer and Bill Lee then divided the pitching duty, letting the American Leaguers have only one more hit until Mace Brown went to the box in the seventh inning, giving up five hits and one run on hits by Dimaggio and Cronin.

The winners scored their only earned run off Johnny Allen in the fourth inning on a ringing triple by Ott and a single by Lombardi, and they chalked up only eight hits.

Cronin, Dickey, Foxx, and Dimaggio committed errors, while McGraw, Lombardi and Cronin batted in, losing to pitcher Gomez. The crowd was 23,000 and the weather was hot and sunny, until cooled by a fresh breeze.—(Reuter)

LONGER DRIVE WITH STREAMLINED CLUBS

Something new in streamline speed was introduced in a recent session of the American Physical Society when S. J. Crocker of Purcellville, Va., told of wind-tunnel tests on golf clubs.

It develops that powerful golfers swing their clubs as fast as 125 miles per hour at the crucial moment of contact. Using the formula for computing resistance of airship hulls, Mr. Crocker finds the traditional style golf club heads have 15 times more air resistance than streamlined ones.

Analyses checked by tests, prove the low-resistance club increases the distance traveled by the golf ball in the air by 15 yards.

All of which means a golfer like Jimmy Thomson, using a streamlined club should attain a carry of 275 yards.

COTTON LAGS BEHIND

End Of First Round In Open Golf Tourney

Sandwich, July 7.
Henry Cotton finished four strokes behind the leaders at the end of the first round in the British open golf championship here yesterday, returning a card of 74, a somewhat disappointing effort by the holder who is favoured to retain his title.

Ernest Whitcombe, Dallemagne, James Bruen, 17-year-old Walker Cupper, Cox of Wimbledon, and J. Fal'on led the field, each hitting a fine 70.

Alfred Perry, Bert Gadd (one of the veterans of the game) J. J. Bussan, Charles Whitcombe, Reginald Whitcombe, and Richard Burton returned cards of 71.

S. B. Roberts from Wales French of West Surrey, and Jack McClean of Sutton each shot a 72.

Dalley of Swansea and Dai Rees returned cards of 73.

Henry Cotton, Alfred Padgham, Sam King, the veteran James Brink, Arthur Lacey and J. Penning, the English champion, could only obtain scores of 74.

A championship record was equalled by the prominent Australian amateur player, McKay, when he took fourteen strokes at the 14th hole, finishing the round with an aggregate of 87.—(Reuter).

GREAT FINISH AT TRENT BRIDGE

Notts Lose By 11 Runs

Surrey beat Nottinghamshire in a grand finish at Trent Bridge by 11 runs. Fortune had wavered this way and that during the first two days, and it continued to do so. When play was begun Nottinghamshire wanted 234 to win, the pitch was as easy as pie, and they had all their wickets in hand, says The Times.

With three wickets down they were nearly half-way there with an immensely efficient Keeton still alive and full of runs, and even after he was fourth out, having played great cricket and being most unlucky just to miss his century, they still had a chance with only 86 to make, but then Gover, who took five wickets, and a new ball upset all home calculations, and they went down to a defeat which could not have been much closer.

Keeton and Harris came out to continue their overnight partnership, but it was to be very short-lived, for Harris obligingly turned Gover's third ball into short-leg's hands.

Gunn, who followed, was in for only 10 minutes, but during that time he managed to be dropped in the slips, send up the 50, and hit three very nice 4's before being caught by the fieldsmen who had been kind to him previously.

A USEFUL STAND

Next came Knowles, who helped Keeton in a very useful stand of 73 runs in just under an hour. Keeton was collecting runs in the most comfortable and confident manner imaginable and with a shot off his legs sent up the 100 and his own individual 50 after a trifle under an hour and a half.

He had a just appreciation of the pace of the outfield and it was splendid to see the way in which he slammed the ball through the covers off his back foot.

When Knowles left after making a well-played 37 Nottinghamshire were still less than half way to their goal, but Keeton found another sound partner in Winrow and between them they put their side 56 runs nearer victory. Then befell a real Nottinghamshire tragedy when Keeton was leg-before-wicket to Squires at 189, and from this moment the expected home victory started to recede into the background, for the flesh of the Nottinghamshire tail is weaker than its spirit.

G. F. H. Heane came in to join his fellow left-hander Winrow, and they stayed together until luncheon, when the score was 194 for four, with 81 still to get.

200 SENT UP

After the interval Heane sent up the 200 with a shot which Gover let through his legs, and one might be pardoned for suspecting this to be a ruse on that player's part since it enabled him to seize the new ball for which he had been longing.

Be that as it may, he immediately had Heane leg-before-wicket with his first ball and in his second over he knocked another nail into Nottinghamshire's coffin by doing the same thing to Winrow, who was the eleventh batsman to be so dismissed in the match.

Winrow had played a noble part, and of the reputed run-getters, excluding Hardstaff, there was only C. E. Maxwell left. The latter set about his business in his

GOLF

SCOTTISH LADIES' CHAMPIONSHIP

Miss Anderson Wins

Miss Jessie Anderson (Craigie Hill), who has been British and French lady champion, gained her first victory recently when in the 18 holes final on the Nairo Club's course she beat Mrs. A. M. Holm (Troom), the holder and British champion, by two holes, says The Times.

About 300 people were present when the finalists drove off in perfect weather. Mrs. Holm was bunkered and lost the first hole, Miss Anderson sinking a putt of two yards for a 4, and the next five holes were halved in 5, 4, 3, 4, 3.

Mrs. Holm squared at the seventh, but after her opponent had got down from 7ft. a win in 3 at the next the British champion was in the heather, lost the ninth, and turned two down. Miss Anderson, who was out in level 4's became three up at the 11th, and after losing the 12th, where she took three putts resumed her advantage at the next, Mrs. Holm being in trouble all the way and taking 8.

Mrs. Holm, however, won the next two holes, recovering to within 6in. of the pin after being bunkered at the 14th, and nearly getting a 2 at the next Miss Anderson missing short putts for halves on both greens. Then came two halves in 4's, but Mrs. Holm was bunkered at the home hole.

She was still short in 4, and gave up the hole. Giving her a 5 at the last hole Miss Anderson had a score of 72 for the round.

SPANISH GOLD
IN FRANCE

Paris, July 7.

Gold from the Bank of Spain to an extent of 40 tons, which has been deposited in the vaults of the Bank of France since 1931, will not be turned over to either of the two warring parties in Spain according to a decision handed down yesterday by a court of appeal, which has thus upheld the decision of the civil court announced on April 15.

In its decision, the court pointed out that the Bank of Spain was not a state institution. (Transocean.)

OTTAWA PACT
REVISION

Discussions with the Commonwealth Minister in London regarding revisions of the Ottawa Trade Agreement with Australia have been proceeding for some weeks, but the Secretary of the Department of Commerce Trade, Mr. R. S. Hudson, when questioned in Commons yesterday said he was not in a position to make a statement.

Mr. Hudson denied that negotiations had been hampered because of British commitments with the United States. (Globe and Mail.)

TRAINING KIANGSI WOMEN FOR SOCIAL AND POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

Extensive Programme Launched

Hankow, July 7.
An extensive programme to prepare Kiangsi's women for participation in social and political activities has been launched in the province under the leadership of Mrs. Nora Hsiung Chu, daughter of the late Mr. Hsiung Hsi-ling, one-time Premier of China, who was invited to undertake the work by the Kiangsi Chairman, General Hsiung Shih-hui.

The programme involves the establishment of a Women's Welfare Bureau in each of the 83 districts in the province, and a nine-month intensive training of women workers to carry out the scheme.

At present, about 80 women workers are receiving training in Nanchang, provincial capital of Kiangsi. They are studying rural economy, public health, maternity and child health, social problems and political science. They are also undergoing military training.

After the completion of their training, they will be sent to the villages to teach the womenfolk scientific methods of doing things and to organise them into units for political work during the present war of resistance.

It is expected that by the end of the current year, about 1,000 women social workers will have completed their training.

Meanwhile, the Women's Welfare Bureau will mobilise the village women to take an active part in China's present armed resistance. (Central News).

REPATRIATING VOLUNTEERS FROM SPAIN

London, July 7.

It is understood that the resolution regarding the withdrawal of volunteers from Spain, approved by the Non-Intervention Committee, provides for the collection of volunteers in four ports, Hamburg, London, Marseilles and Genoa, before repatriation to their homelands.

It is believed that volunteers serving with the Loyalists, who are collected in London if they come from northern Europe, and in Marseilles if they come from southern Europe.

Volunteers from Insurgent Spain will, it is believed, be similarly divided between Hamburg and Genoa. (Reuter).

Konoye Dreams Of Conquest

HOPES AID TO CHINA WILL CEASE

Tokyo, July 7.

One of the most important statements made to the press by prominent Japanese personages on the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese conflict was that of Premier Konoye, who declared yesterday that Japan has now resolved to continue her present policy until the ultimate aim has been achieved.

Some surprise was occasioned by his assertion that even though Marshal Chiang Kai-shek might resign from the Central Chinese Government Japan would still refuse to recognize it as the authoritative Government of China.

Prince Konoye, intimated that the recently organised and combined pro-Japanese Governments in Peking and Nanking might negotiate with a reorganised Hankow Government.

FOREIGN POWERS

The Premier's comments on the attitude of the foreign countries towards Japan were of a distinctly optimistic nature. He declared that he did not anticipate intervention by England, France or other Powers and that he confidently expected a clearer understanding of the Japanese policy to grow in the world, with ensuing betterment in relations with England, France and America.

Surprising also was his declaration that Japan was endeavouring through economic and diplomatic measures to persuade third powers to relinquish the support they have been giving to China. (Transocean).

Bomb Outrages In Palestine

HAIFA AND OTHER TOWNS IN UPROAR

Jerusalem, July 7.

Twenty are dead and an additional 20 wounded in a bomb outrage yesterday outside the Central Police Station in Haifa.

The explosion was followed by firing on the crowd from an unknown source. The dead include five Arabs and two Jews.

The curfew was imposed in Haifa last night.

It is alleged that after the bomb was thrown police arrived and fired on the crowd.

A Jewish civil engineer, Tuvia Founie, brother-in-law of Dr. Weizmann, President of the British Zionist Federation, was among those killed. He was driving his car in the line of fire when the fusillade rang out.

GIRL KILLED

A Jewish girl was killed and two Jews were seriously injured by a bomb thrown from a train passing over a level crossing in the main thoroughfare of Tel-Aviv yesterday. Several other Jews sustained slight injuries.

Another bomb outrage is reported from Nazareth, near where two Jews were seriously injured by an explosion. (Reuter).

SHOOTING AFFRAY IN HAIFA: TWENTY-SIX DEAD

Jerusalem, July 7.

The number of casualties resulting from the shooting affray at Haifa and from the bombing of the police station has increased to 26 dead and 83 wounded, according to latest figures today. Ten auxiliary police constables have been arrested.

All shops in the old City of Jerusalem have closed in protest today. (Transocean).

CHANGSHA OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

Changsha, July 7.

The "Double Seven" was observed in fitting manner here today when over 20,000 people attended a mass meeting in commemoration of the first anniversary of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

General Chang Chih-chung, Chairman of the Honan Provincial Government presided at the mass meeting, and delivered a stirring address.

A noon, three minutes' silence was observed by the whole city. Traffic was suspended and pedestrians as one bared their heads to stand silent in sad memory of the dead.

All flags were flown at half-mast, while amusement houses in the city were closed. (Central News).

DEMONSTRATIONS BY COMMUNISTS IN AUSTRALIA

Sydney, July 7.

Five hundred Communists demonstrated in front of the German House in Melbourne where a reception was held in honour of the famous German war hero, Count Ecken. The building was guarded by police who dispersed the crowd and arrested seven demonstrators.

Another anti-German demonstration occurred in the Melbourne suburb of Richmond where about 300 Marxists were dispersed by mounted police. (Transocean).

Death Stalks Practice Fire Display

Lisbon, July 7.

Eight persons were killed at a practice display of the fire brigade in the famous Portuguese University town of Coimbra last night.

To demonstrate the skill of the fire brigade ten persons had to be saved from a burning three-storey scaffold, when, contrary to expectation, flames of the burning scaffold blazed up to the high platform.

Ten persons, who were panic-stricken, jumped down. Eight were killed instantaneously while two others were seriously injured and are in danger of losing their lives. (Transocean).

CHINA CLAIMS SOVEREIGNTY OF PARCELS

French Government Informed

Paris, July 7.

The Chinese Ambassador, Dr. Wellington Koo, yesterday called on the French Foreign Minister, M. Georges Bonnet, and informed him that China continued to claim sovereignty over the Parcel Islands.

Dr. Koo inquired the meaning of the occupation of the island by detachments of Annamite police. M. Bonnet replied that France had sent to the island personnel and material necessary for the establishment and maintenance of lighthouses and a meteorological station. Police had been sent to ensure their protection.

The French Foreign Minister further explained that it was simply a question of providing a particularly dangerous region with aids to navigation intended to render service to vessels of all nationalities. (Reuter).

CHOLERA CASES MOUNTING

Eleven new cases of cholera were reported to the local health authorities on Wednesday, making 82 cases in all reported during recent weeks.

Other diseases notified on Wednesday were four cases of enteric fever, three cases each of dysentery and measles and one case of cerebro-spinal meningitis.

Y'S MEN'S KEEP SILENCE

Owing to the "Double Seven" observations yesterday the address on "Discipline" which was to have been given by Lt.-Col. H. L. Murrow, D.S.O., at the Y's Men's Club was postponed till Thursday, July 21.

Members and their guests present at yesterday's meeting observed the three minutes' silence after Mr. Peter H. Sin, the president, had made a few remarks on the significance of the observations. Mr. Sin said that it was on the Double Tenth, in 1911, that the Republic was born. On the Double Seventh, last year, the war started but he hoped that by the Double First, 1939, the outlook for China would be very bright.

TERRITORIALS AT PALACE

London, July 7.

For the first time in history, men of the Territorial Army furnished the Guard at Buckingham Palace yesterday when they took over duty from the Scots Guards.

His Majesty the King watched the ceremony of the Changing of the Guard from the balcony of the Palace. (Reuter).

DISTRIBUTION PROHIBITED

Warsaw, July 7.

The Polish Ministry of the Interior has prohibited the distribution of the news service of the American news agency United Press, published in the German language at the United Press Berlin office and delivered to several Polish opposition newspapers. (Transocean).
